

RESIDENT SCREENING AND SELECTION POLICY

As part of the application process, CRMG may obtain an Investigative Consumer Report, which may include information on your character, general reputation, personal characteristics and mode of living.

You have a right to request a written summary of your rights under the Federal Fair Credit Act as well as a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation requested. The request should be made to the landlord or credit reporting firm listed on the application.

CRMG is in total compliance with State and Local Federal Fair Housing Laws. No person(s) shall be discriminated against on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, marital status, familial status, source of income, disability, age, or any other protected status. Our goal is to be consistent and apply all of our criteria and regulations equally to all applicants.

Occupancy Standards

Two persons are allowed per bedroom plus one additional person, for the entire unit. Exceptions are made for children under the age of two. Children under the age of two are allowed as an additional occupant when the child resides with the parent or other adult(s) maintaining proper legal custody.

Apartment Size	Maximum Occupancy
Studio	3 persons
One bedroom	3 persons
Two bedroom	5 persons
Three bedroom	7 persons

Applicant Screening and Selection Process

All persons 18 years or older who will be occupying the unit are required to complete a separate rental application. Each applicant must sign the separate rental application form and applicant screening consent form. The screening investigation will be conducted at the expense of each applicant. The screening fee is non-refundable, regardless of approval or denial.

All applicants shall be jointly and severally liable for the rental contract. Applicants must be legally able to enter into a binding contract, rental or lease agreement. Applicants are required to provide current and valid government issued photo identification to verify applicant validity.

Completed applications will be processed in order of time received. The first applicant to qualify shall be entitled to rent the unit. The application must be completely filled out. Incomplete applications will result in denial of the application.

Upon receipt of the screening results, CRMG will apply the following standard criteria for APPROVAL:

I. Credit History

1. Credit history in good standing is required for approval. A Co-signer or an increased security deposit may be considered when no or questionable credit is found. (Medical bills are not considered when reviewing credit.)
2. A credit score of 600 or greater is required for approval. A credit score of 525-599 will be considered for approval with an increased security deposit. A credit score of 524 or less will result in a denial, in this case, a qualified co-signer may be considered. If negative credit has been established and the Credit Score is not scored, then the application will result in denial. If no credit has been established and the Credit Score is not scored, then the application will result in a full deposit.
3. A debt to income ratio of no more than 30% is required.
4. All unpaid collections, judgements and/or tax liens must be less than $1,500 to be approved. Rental history reflecting past due and unpaid rent/fees will be denied.
5. Open or dismissed bankruptcies dated within the last 12 months will result in a denial. A discharged bankruptcy dated more than 12 months ago will require a full security. A discharged bankruptcy dated within the last 12 months will require a qualified co-signer.

II. Rental History

1. Five (5) years of recent eviction free rental history will be required except for general eviction judgments entered on claims that arose on or after April 1, 2020, and before March 1, 2022.

2. Rental history reflecting past due and unpaid rent/fees will be denied except for unpaid rent, including rent reflected in judgments or referrals of debt to a collection agency, that accrued on or after April 1, 2020, and before March 1, 2022.
3. Current and previous verifiable landlord references with telephone numbers shall be listed on the rental application for a minimum of 12 months. The applicant's name must have been on the rental or lease agreement to qualify as a reference. If you don't have the minimum rental history an additional security deposit equal to one full month's rent minimum, may be required. Previous long-term home ownership may be substituted for rental history. Mortgage lenders and/or land sales contract persons will be listed for homeowners. Mortgages in default and foreclosures may require an additional security deposit or co-signer.
4. Three (3) or more 72 Hour Notices within a period of one year will result in denial.
5. Three (3) or more NSF checks within a period of one year may result in denial.

III. Income Requirements

1. Gross monthly household income shall be two and a half (2.5) times the rent. If monthly income does not equal two and a half (2.5) times the monthly stated rent but equals two to two and half (2-2.5) times the rent, a full security deposit will be required. Gross monthly household income below (2) times the rent may result in a denial however a co-signer may be considered.
2. Applicants who are retired, on disability or have other forms of regular and steady income will be required to provide verification that income is two and a half (2.5) times the rent. (Verifiable income may mean, but is not limited to, Bank Accounts, Alimony/Child Support, Trust Accounts, Social Security, Unemployment, Welfare, Section 8 housing choice vouchers, Grants/Loans.)
3. Self-employed applicants will be required to show proof of income through copies of the previous year's tax returns and/or three (3) most recent months of bank statements.

IV. Additional Deposits or Co-Signer Additions

On marginal cases of unacceptable credit history, employment history, or income levels, CRMG may accept the addition of an approved co-signer or increased security deposit.

Co-signers must fill out an application. A Co-Signer must meet the below criteria to qualify as a co-signer.

1. A credit score of 600 or greater is required for approval.
2. Income must be three and a half (3.5) times the applicants rent amount and proof of income must be supplied to management.
3. A debt to income ratio of no more than 30.0% is required.
4. No bankruptcies, foreclosures or defaults on a current mortgage are permitted.
5. Must have 25% of Gross Monthly Household Income remaining after Rent and Estimated Debts are paid

Failure to meet any of the above criteria shall result in denial of the application. In addition, any of the following shall result in DENIAL.

V. Criminal Conviction

Upon receipt of the Rental Application and screening fee, Owner/Agent will conduct a search of public records to determine whether applicant or any proposed resident or occupant has a "Conviction" (which means: charges pending as of the date of the application; a conviction; a guilty plea; or no contest plea), for any of the following crimes as provided in ORS 90.303(3): drug-related crime; person crime; sex offense; crime involving financial fraud, including identity theft and forgery; or any other crime if the conduct for which applicant was convicted or is charged is of a nature that would adversely affect property of the landlord or a tenant or the health, safety or right of peaceful enjoyment of the premises of residents, the landlord or the landlord's agent. Owner/Agent will not consider a previous arrest that did not result in a Conviction or expunged records. Owner/Agent will not consider convictions or pending charges for conduct that is presently legal in this state.

If applicant, or any proposed occupant, has a Conviction in their past which would disqualify them under these criminal conviction criteria, and desires to submit additional information to Owner/Agent along with the application so Owner/Agent can engage in an individualized assessment (described below) upon receipt of the results of the public records search and prior to a denial, applicant should do so. Otherwise, applicant may request the review process after denial as set forth below, however, see item (c) under "Criminal Conviction Review Process" below regarding holding the unit.

A single Conviction for any of the following, subject to the results of any review process, shall be grounds for denial of the Rental Application.

1. Felonies involving: Murder, manslaughter, arson, rape, kidnapping, child sex crimes, or manufacturing or distribution of a controlled substance.

2. Felonies not listed above involving: drug-related crimes, person crimes, sex offenses, financial fraud crimes, burglary, theft, criminal mischief, coercion, animal abuse, or any other crime if the conduct for which applicant was convicted or is charged is of a nature that would adversely affect property of the landlord or a tenant or the health, safety or right of peaceful enjoyment of the premises of the residents, the landlord or the landlords agent, where the date of disposition has occurred in the last 7 years.
3. Misdemeanors involving: drug-related crimes, person crimes, sex offenses, domestic violence, violation of a restraining order, stalking, weapons, criminal impersonation, possession of burglary tools, financial fraud crimes, where date of disposition has occurred in the last 5 years.
4. Misdemeanors not listed above involving: theft, criminal trespass, criminal mischief, property crimes or any other crime if the conduct for which applicant was convicted or is charged is of a nature that would adversely affect property of the landlord or a tenant or the health, safety or right of peaceful enjoyment of the premises of the residents, the landlord or the landlords agent, where the date of disposition has occurred within the last 3 years.
5. Conviction of any crime that requires active registration as a sex offender at time of rental application will result in denial.

Criminal Conviction Review Process

Owner/Agent will engage in an individualized assessment of the applicant's, or other proposed occupant's convictions. Applicant has the right to submit supplemental evidence to explain, justify or negate the relevance of potentially negative information. Any supplemental evidence provided will be considered in the individualized assessment.

Supplemental evidence may include:

- i) Letter from parole or probation office;
- ii) Letter from caseworker, therapist, counselor, etc.;
- iii) Certifications of treatments/rehab programs;
- iv) Letter from employer, teacher, etc.
- v) Certification of trainings completed;
- vi) Proof of employment; and
- vii) Statement of the applicant.

While conducting the individualized assessment, Owner/Agent will consider:

(a) The nature and severity of the incidents that would lead to a denial; (b) the number and type of incidents; (c) the time elapsed since the date the incidents occurred; and (e) the age of the individual at the time the incidents occurred.

VI. Denials

Applicant has the right to appeal a negative determination if any right exists. If your application is denied due to negative or adverse information, it is your right to obtain a copy of the credit report and to dispute any information that you feel is inaccurate or incomplete. If you feel that the information reported to us was in error, you may contact the screening company by mail, by phone, or in person.

A Summary of your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

Para información en español, visite www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore o escriba a la Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies (CRA's). There are many types of CRA's, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

You may have additional rights under Maine's FCRA, Me. Rev Stat. Ann. 10, Sec 1311 et seq.

VIII. You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address and phone number of the agency that provided the information.

IX. You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a CRA (your "file disclosure"). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:

1. A person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
2. You are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
3. Your file contain inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
4. You are on public assistance;
5. You are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, as of September 2005 all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty CRA's. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

X. You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.

XI. You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.

XII. CRA's must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However a CRA may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.

XIII. CRA's may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a CRA may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.

XIV. Access to your file is limited. A CRA may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.

XV. You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A CRA may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore

XVI. You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "Prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.

XVII. You may seek damages from violators. If a CRA, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under the state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:
